

Office of the Attorney General
Washington, D.C.

January 22, 1964

Dear Mr. Squirru:

As you know, the Attorney General is in the Far East.

In his absence, I should like to acknowledge your letter of January 16th and its enclosures. I know he will appreciate your taking the time to bring this to his attention.

I know also that he will appreciate the thought so beautifully expressed in your poem in the December issue.

Sincerely,

John E. Nolan, Jr.
Administrative Assistant
