Dear Dr. Squirru:

I do want to thank you for your kind letter of September 15th and I am very touched to learn that Mr. Miguel Burt wishes to present me with a portrait he has painted of me.

Unfortunately, the weekend of October first I shall be in the country with my children and I never know how late we will get back to the City. Perhaps you could let my office know where you will be staying in New York, and I could call you Sunday from the country to see if our timing coincides.

Thank you so very much for offering to bring the portrait to me. I send you my very best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Kennedy
