

THE VICE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON

20501

September 22, 1967

Dear Dr. Squirru:

I was pleased that you could join us on the plane, but was especially pleased to share this important occasion with you. It was a pleasure and an honor to address the gala opening of the Center for Inter-American Relations.

I am enclosing a copy of my text for the evening with the thought that you might like to look it over.

Kind personal regards.

Sincerely,

Hubert H. Humphrey
